4. (Dr. Mahmud 'Uthman) is on a visit now to the Autonomous Ruling Region. He is a Kurdish politician, lives in (London) and doesn't belong to a great tribe, still he is a famous person and has a political respect in the region [REDACTED]. He held number of meetings, in which he mentioned the satisfaction of the British Government to the similar attitudes of the two main parties from the issues of the reconciliation with the central government. He also mentioned the reply on the invitation of Mr. President the leader Saddam Hussein (Protected and Cared by God) about the dialogue, and putting the conditions was very suitable in this period of time. After that he visited Al-Anfal Center which was opened in Irbil, and said that he collects the documents that condemn the central government in the case of human rights. Though he was undesirable person from the opinion of the two parties, he changed quickly, and it is thought that this was according to instructions form the British Government.
5. The staff of the security Kurdish Democratic Party distributed (30) thirty handbags on the security directors in Irbil and Duhuk, to keep the important information that they have. The specialty of these bags is that they are supplied with automatic digital system and a specific code to be opened; and in case of touching the code number by another person, it gives a beam and spectrum that lead to the temporal blindness immediately. It is considered that the mentioned bags were imported from Britain.
6. The Iraqi Communist Party has issued a statement, condemning and convicting the attitude of the both parties; the Union and the Democratic. He also objected on the usage of the term (sovereignty of the Iraqi President) in their common statement about responding the dialogue invitation. The Iraqi Communist Party also accused the two parties of having the intention of making dialogue with the government.

Referring to your letter numbered with (SATTS L.W.M / 902) on 11 Jun 2001, accompanied with the letter of the Public Information Bureau / Fedayeen Saddam number (3299/5) on 6 June 2001, we want to inform your honorable office the following:

1. The activity of Fedayeen Saddam about the growth of Al-Wahabiyyah Movement specially in Al-Ta'mim Governorate, is activated by us and we have our sources that supply us with some cases related to this activity and enable us to get samples of the books, booklets and the recording cassettes circulated among some extremist religious members. There is also coordination between the security directorates of the governorates and the branches of the leader party to record and follow up the movements of these members.
2. We directed in different periods chosen strikes to the most prominent extremist members that practice the rituals of Al-Wahabiyyah Movement. When we made detailed investigation by a special commission which was prepared for this purpose, we found that these members don't have the complete religious knowledge or the culture that could circulate this trend. Accordingly, their ignorance of the religious matters made them doing practices away from the Holy Book (Qur'an) and the Sunnah.
