

ISGQ-2003-M0004286 (3 minute cut; in progress)

- Male 1 The solution [Inaudible] and I stop here
- Male 2 To come back to the same [Inaudible] if we win... the same thing.
- Male 3 Thank you.
- Male 4 We bet on it too... anyway.
-
- Unidentified After the battles we became an international playing card, meaning
Male whoever wants to win in this country ... meaning several countries want to win... calculates if in Iraq he is going to win and if he wins what kind of military victory he achieved and he calculates what he won in Iraq and what he did not win. If in his calculation he finds out that he achieved he will count on it.
- Unidentified This is as far as the American side is concerned. As far as Russia - Russia, anything
Male concerning Military affairs against Iraq will not benefit the candidate (inaudible) unless he decides that he is backing up Iraq and shows the electors that he is a real ally that was betrayed by (inaudible) They will back him up if he shows a support at that level.